OIL-TESTING.

Considering the extensive use of Kerosene in this country it has, until lately, been a matter of surprise to us that we have heard of no accidents through its use. Our surprise was dissipated the other day by seeing the Deputy Marshal testing samples of oil about to be shipped to this country, if it passed the examination. The law requires the oil sold here to be of such a quality that it will not flash under 100°. In order to ensure that none is sold under this quality, Mr. Dayton has taken upon himself the trouble to test samples of all the oil imported here. The process is very interesting. An ingenious contrivance has been invented for doing it: A little copper stand contains a place for a little spirit lamp. Above this is a receptacle for water. Into this a cup-shaped receptacle, for the oil to be tested, fits. This is open at the top so that the surface of the oil is exposed to the air. On one side a little thermometer with its bulb in the oil is fixed, and on the other a little burner with a tiny wick. This is lighted, being fed by the oil, and burns during the whole of the experiment.

The spirit lamp heats the water, which in its turn heats the oil evenly throughout, and the thermometer gradually rises showing the increase in temperature. If the oil is of good quality it will show much above 100° before a flash is seen from the little burner to the surface of the oil. As the heat grows greater the flashes become more frequent, until finally the whole surface of the oil takes fire. If the oil is of standard quality the first flash is observable at a temperature of 100°. If it flashes below that temperature the law forbids its sale.

This test is made so that the oil sold will be as free as possible from the chance of exploding.

"THE ANGLICAN CHURCH CHRONICLE" has reached its fifth number, which now lies before us. We have said before that each issue so far has been an improvement on its predecessor. This month's is no exception. From beginning to end the whole is interesting and readable. The opening article, entitled, "Easter Thoughts," is pregnant with argument for those half-scientists of the present day who can believe nothing but what is to be found in a school or college text-book on Science. It seems to us that of late there has been a revulsion against such foolish wisdom, and this article will go far to aid that revulsion.

Next comes a very sensible article on the amusements which should be provided for young men. The writer has been prompted to say a few words on the subject owing to Mr. Cruzan's sermon and an address given before the Y. M. C. A. by Mr. Forbes. He acknowledges that Mr. Cruzan has exhaustively answered the question, but he certainly seems to think that the proposed Y. M. C. A. forms of amusement would fail in their purpose and we agree with him. He goes on to give his own experience, which may be summed up in one sentence, "visit the young men in their own homes."

The remainder of the issue contains many articles which we haven't space to notice. We must mention our gladness in noticing the truly Catholic spirit displayed throughout.

The Iwalandi will sail on Thursday.

LOCAL & GENERAL ITEMS.

The Foreign Jury are required this day at 10 a.m., at the Supreme Court.

On Saturday the Captain and officers of the Najiesduk were presented to His Majesty.

Our daily contemporary again made a mull of it when it stated the San Jose detective had gone. He is yet in town, prospecting on family affairs.

It is easy to see that the BULLETIN is well and carefully read in the office of the Saturday Press. We are glad of it.

The Nuanu Grocery deserves a visit from our readers for its neatness. They will find it above Bere-tania street.

We noticed on Saturday that drays had been driven over the new sidewalks of Queen street. This ought to be put a stop to.

The Old Testament company has completed its second revision. The revisers have sat seventy-eight times—Anglican Church Chronicle.

The Chinese passengers by the Oceanic, now in quarantine, will be released this morning at 9 o'clock, if the medical inspection warrants it.

Why doesn't the Road Supervisor put on the steam roller on the newly-metalled portion of Queen street? The very air is already blasphemous in the neighborhood.

On Saturday afternoon an alarm of fire was given, but most people thought it was a practice signal. It was in the house of a native called Kealakai, on Merchant street, near the corner of Alakea. It was soon put out with but slight damage.

The 24 German prisoners, from Kilauea Plantation, were released on Saturday on a bail bond generously furnished by Mr. Widemann. They will be brought up at the Police Court at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

On Friday morning a dispute occurred between two Chinamen at the Quarantine Grounds about some food. One was a Hakka and the other a Punti, so very soon the members of both tribes were engaged in a free fight. It was quelled before serious damage was done.

On Friday afternoon a native boy whipped up his horse and drove furiously along Beretania street and up Emma street. On this occasion there was no necessity to ask where were the police, for there were no less than two of them there calmly looking on.

Here is a good suggestion for beautifying the city. Let every resident on King street and Beretania street plant, in their own lot, Royal Palms at regular intervals. These streets would shortly be the most beautiful avenues in the world.

The total number of Chinese in quarantine is 523. Of these about 300 are Hakka and about 200 Punti. We believe, with the exception of a few returning here after a visit to China, that they have all been imported by Chinese firms. 140 to one firm, 40 to another, and soon, for work in the rice, &c., plantations.

Here is the latest addition to the Blue Ribbon Brigade. Messrs. G. W. Macfarlane & Co. have received a new brand of Champagne. "The Bell of Moscow." It has a little model of the bell attached by a blue ribbon to the neck of each bottle. A larger model of this same celebrated bell forms a neat and handy ice pail.

It has been pointed out to us that the Royal Hawaiian Agricultural Society in their published Prize list have made no provision for rewarding one very important industry in the islands—the raising of bananas for food and export. Probably now that the omission is pointed out they will rectify it.

We have received a copy of the list of Hawaiian Stock quotations for March prepared by Mr. W. O. Smith, stock broker, from which we gather that there has been little or no increase in the prices paid for different stock during the past month. A useful feature has been added in the shape of a list of dividends for the past five months.

We learn that Col. C. P. Iaukea is to be sent on a special and secret mission by the steamer. Mr. H. Poor accompanies him as Secretary. It is whispered that they are going to Russia to be present at the Coronation. It is to be hoped that they will not return in fragments caused by dynamite intended for the Czar of all the Russias.

On Saturday we accidentally saw a Pound Notice affixed to a fence on Queen street. This is the first time we have seen one since our arrival in this country. It was in a remarkably inconspicuous position, and very few would probably notice it, so that the requirements of law are evaded. Why not print it in large type, and post it on some Bulletin Board?

Something for Everybody—a new discovery,
The Magnesio-Calcite Fire Proof Safes,

Jewel Cases and Bond Cases.

At a test of the fire proof qualities of the Magnesio-Calcite, held on the sand-lot near the City Hall, San Francisco, Nov. 27th, a pile of about a cord of pitch-pine wood was prepared, and five gallons of tar poured over it. A small iron chest, with a 1 1/4 inch lining of Magnesio-calcite was placed in the centre of the pile and the mass set fire to. After the chest had been kept at a red heat for an hour, it was taken from the fire, cooled with water, and opened, and the contents, consisting of papers and circulars, were found in a perfect state of preservation, being not at all discolored, only slightly warm, and having a trifling smell of smoke.

We, the undersigned, were present at the above test, and saw the box opened, and we certify to the perfect preservation of its contents. The entire test was perfectly satisfactory to us. H. L. DORR, (of Dodge, Sweeney & Co.); C. H. LATON, and others.

A public test of the quality of these goods will be made at an early date.
